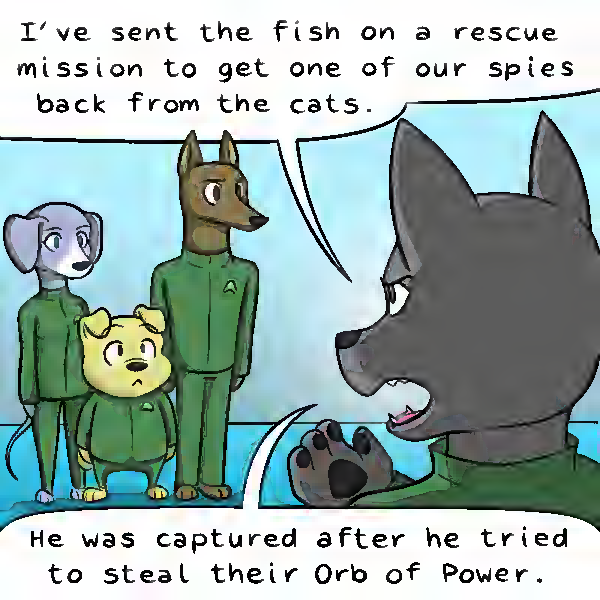
WEB TOON



I've sent the fish on a rescue mission to get one of our spies back from the cats.
He was captured after he tried to steal their Orb of Power.

In the meantime, I've disguised OUR highly dangerous artifact, the "Sphere of Might", as a head of broccoli in hopes that it will deter you morons from accidentally ingesting it.

Brilliant solution, commander! Broccoli is indeed super gross!
...Says the dog who ate three latex gloves last week.

Question, though: can I eat the broccoli?
No, Mcleery.
Will I die if I do?
With almost 100% certainty.

On second thought, the no-eating rule is lifted for you, starting now.
Yesssssss!

As an added safeguard for everyone but McLeery, the object is cloaked in an anti-bite force-field to repel all unauthorized chewing.
Lieutenant Chewy, kindly demonstrate?
